COTHER M'CARTY RETAINS TITLE

ets Better of Moran After Ten Fast Rounds Between Heavyweights.

New York, April 30 .- Luther McCarty, champion white heavyweight, shaded Frank Moran, of Pittsburgh, in ten rounds at the St. Nicholas A. C. tonight.

In the tenth the champion woke up and showed some steam. Moran, who had been on the defensive in the early had been on the defensive in the early rounds, sailed in for a knockout, if possible. He did not get very far; he happened to bump into McCarty's trusty left, which dazed him a bit. Before he could recover. Luther whipped a right to the jaw. From then to the closing bell Moran was staggering around the ring in pretty bad condition.

The pair were mauling away like washerwomen for more than a minute

The pair were mauling away like washerwomen for more than a minute at a stretch. McCarty had every advantage over his rival—height, weight and reach. He was ten pounds the heavier, and this excess told in his favor toward the end.

McCarty did all his execution with his left. He had a fine jab at the start, but Moran sized it up after several rounds, and got his shoulder up to protect his chin. The first two rounds were rather tame. In the third they began to mix it up as lively as possible. McCarty here began to pump away for the body, and landed many blows for the body, and landed many blows to the wind and ribs.

to the wind and ribs.

The Pittsburgh "Redhead," however, took them all, and was willing to mix at close quarters every minute. At in-fighting, Moran showed to advantage. In the third round McCarty butted a patch of "bark" off Moran's forehead. In the fourth he cut the Pittsburgher's right eye. Moran retallated with a very hard right to the nose that left that member in a somewhat dilapidated condition. There were no knockdowns. The closest approach came in the ninth, when Moran butted McCarty to the floor.

The fighting was at a fast page for

The fighting was at a fast pace for heavyweights. Moran did most of the leading, and frequently the men stood toe to toe and exchanged freely their hardest blows, both receiving much punishment about the body. McCarty relied upon a hard left to the face, often left his guard open, enabling his opponent to get in a strong left hook.

PIRATES TOO EASY FOR GRIFFIN'S COLTS

Portsmouth's Loose Fielding, Coupled With Timely Hits by Richmond, Responsible for Defeat. Strain Pitches One of His Usual Games.

Petersburg, Va., April 30.—The longest and most sensational game played in the Virginia League this season was pulled off this afternoon by the Goobers and Tars, and the best that could be done was a tie. Hedgpeth, and Gaston were in the box for their respective teams, and both were in fine form, and for nine innings it was a pitchers' duel.

Brooklyn, April 20.—After trailing behind the Glants for six ininugs today Brooklyn landed on Ames, driving in four runs and winning the game, 5 to 3. Ames was withdrawn in the eighth and Crandall substituted, but the Dodgers clung to their advantage through the remaining two sessions. Herzog, Doyle and Fletcher took turns in making several sensational catches, while the batting of Stengel and Wheat for Brooklyn figured largely in the result.
